THE HAPPENING

Western Piedmont Community College is a junior college offering a variety of comprehensive educational opportunities including college transfer programs in Liberal Arts and Pre-Professional undergraduate study along with trade, technical and continuing education programs. Grants, scholarships and work-study programs are available. Consisting of approximately 1700 students, WPCC was established in 1963. Located on Highway 64 just north of Interstate 40 in Morganton, North Carolina, WPCC spreads over 130 acres of Burke County's finest land.

GRADUATION 1975

All you need in this life is ignorance and confidence,
and then success is sure.

Love is Spiritual — Sex is Biological . . .

If you think you are confused, consider poor Columbus.
He didn't know where he was going. When he got there he didn't know where he was. And when he got back he didn't know where he had been.

The ladder of success is never crowded at the top.

WPCC CHOIR

A class for fun, or an activity for credit? Music 106, which is called "Choir" in the catalog and "chorus" by the singers, almost bit the dust this year because a tight budget couldn't be stretched to include a part-time choral director's salary. Student Services came to the rescue, arguing that a campus without music would be a sad place, and hurled the student activities director — a former concert musician — into the breach, as acting choral director.

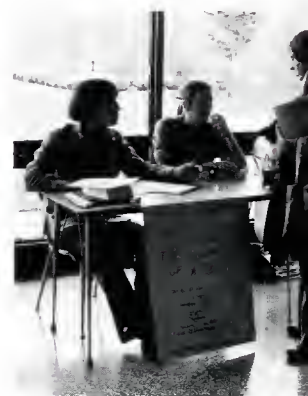

There are no auditions for the group, which admits anyone who sings, or would like to try. Public appearances are given on a "fire when ready" basis, and all members have a voice in choosing the music for their programs. A major part of their singing repertory is contemporary songs by such familiars as Cat Stevens, Jim Croce, Simon and Garfunkel. At Christmas, accompanied by piano and drums, they offered a mini-program of Moravian and other unusual carols before leading spectators in a "sing-in" of traditional Christmas favorites.

Choristers may repeat the course three times for a total of three credit points, and volunteers who enjoy singing but don't want to be committed to regular attendance, required for credit, are welcome to attend rehearsals and sing along.

Dr. Gordon C. Blank — President

WESTERN PIEDMONT COMMUNITY COLLEGE

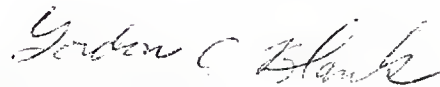

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

MORGANTON, NORTH CAROLINA 28655

To the Students of Western Piedmont Community College:

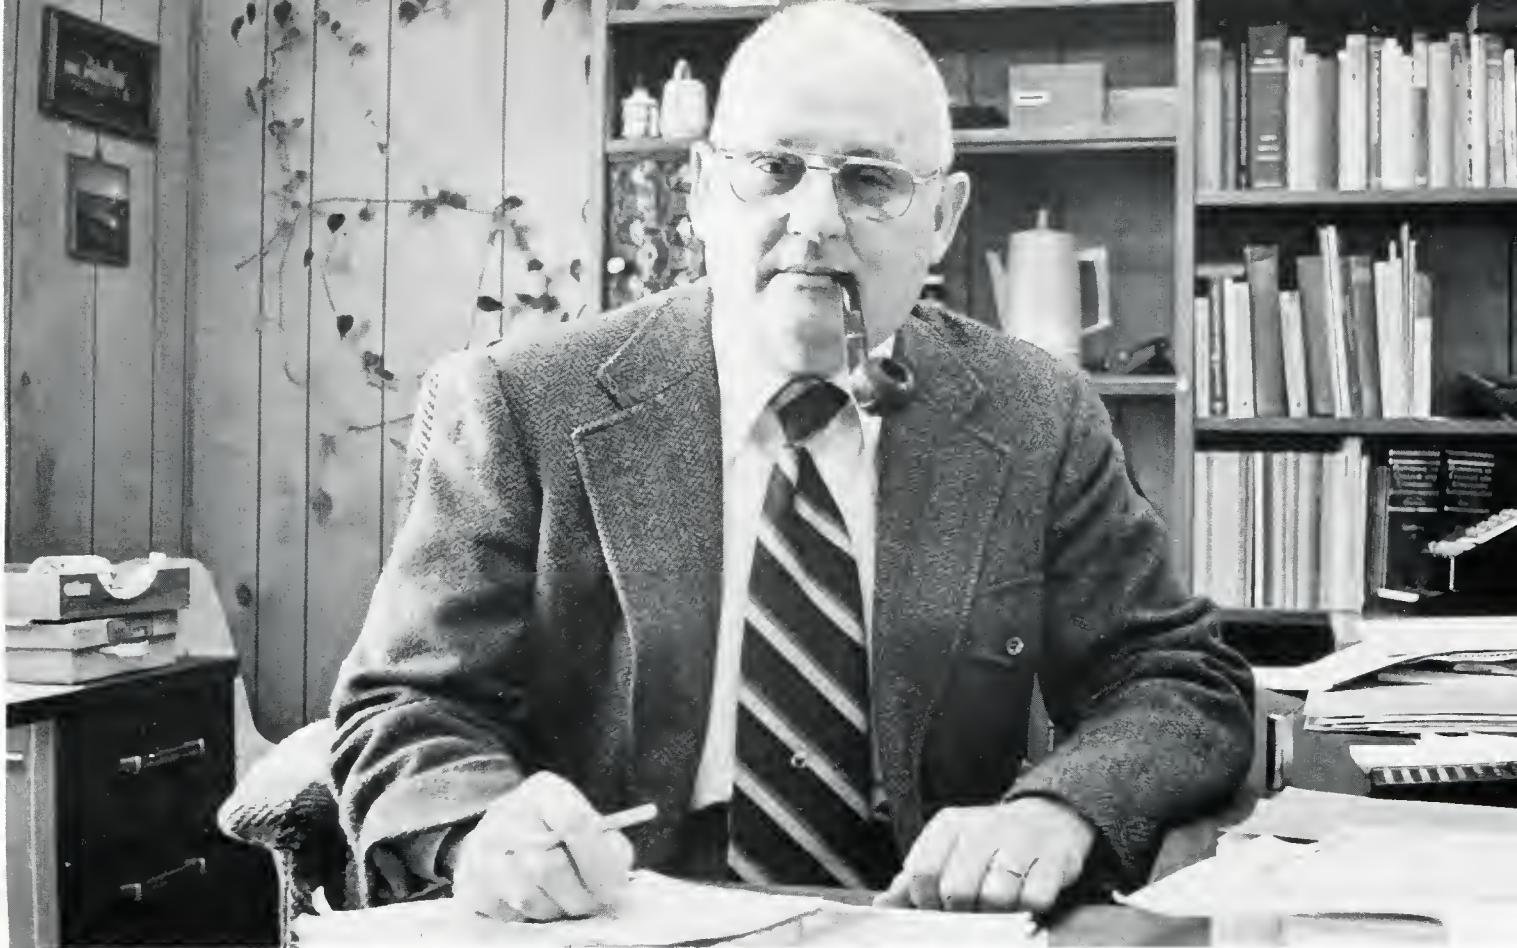

The trustees, faculty, and staff of Western Piedmont Community College take great pride in sharing the mutual goal of providing the students with a high quality educational program. All of our work is geared toward that end. The students of Western Piedmont Community College deserve no less than the best we can provide.

This issue of The Happening portrays some of the many activities and events which took place at the College this year. I am sure that, years from now, as we leaf through its pages, we will recall many fond recollections. The College is a complex mosaic of diverse curricula, activities, and programs. The yearbook helps us to remember that, above all, our most significant experiences are those resulting from the simple personal interactions with one another. It is this personalization of activities that makes Western Piedmont the fine institution it is. Deal as we must with complex issues, budgets, and paperwork, it is people who count most at Western Piedmont. The Happening will prompt these pleasant memories of each other in the years that lie ahead.

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

MORGANTON, NORTH CAROLINA 28655

Students of Western Piedmont:

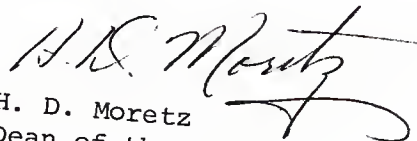

Well, another year has passed, and we have all had varied experiences, hopefully more good ones than bad. In spite of the problems we have all faced, I am sure we have grown as a result of dealing with them.

The faculty and staff have, in many cases, over-extended themselves in providing the educational services that you, the students, want and deserve. Where you are aware that they have "gone the extra mile", I hope you will let them know that you recognize and appreciate it.

To those who have completed their programs and are leaving Western Piedmont, my best wishes. I am confident you have been well served here, and that you will look back with pleasure on the time you spent with us.

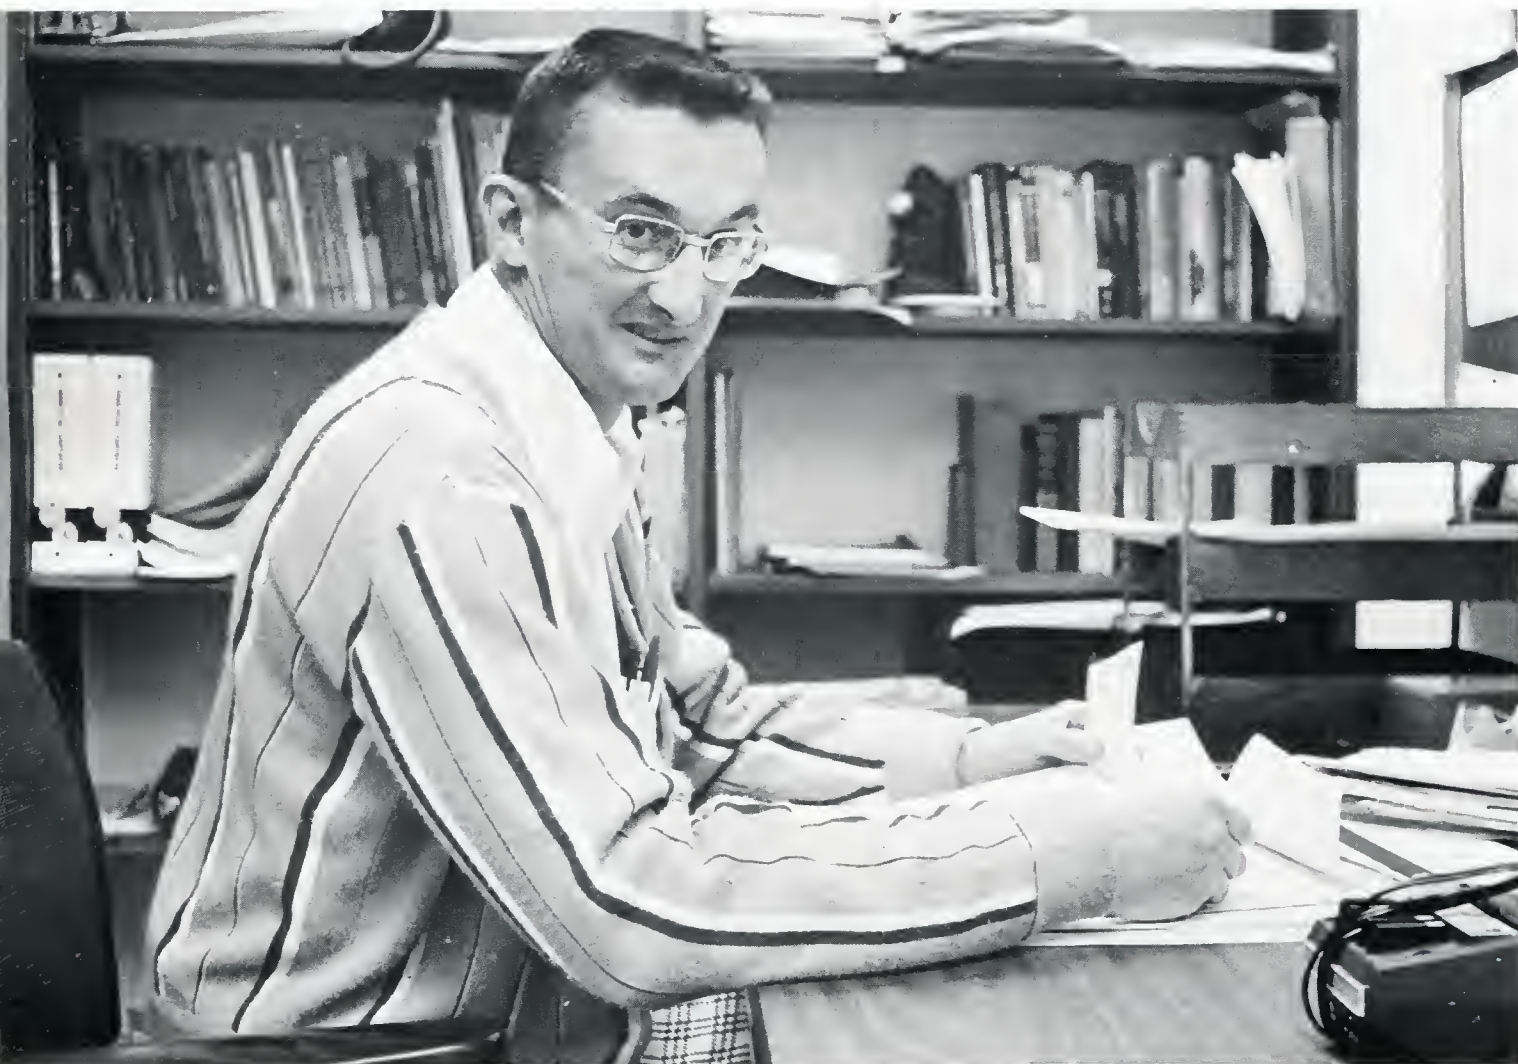

To those who will continue with us, I pledge my support, and that of the entire staff, in making every effort to help you achieve your educational goals. However, the major responsibility for your success is your own. We can only help.

Sincerely,

H. D. Moretz
Dean of the College

Cocaine: Jet Set Drug Zooming In U

By DOLORES BARCLAY

Associated Press

NEW YORK — Cocaine, one of the most powerful natural stimulants and once the "real thing" in Coca-Cola, has become the new "in" drug in America, a rich man's marijuana.

Cocaine traffic has increased in the Charlotte area to the point that agents spend as much time on cocaine cases as they do making heroin busts.

Lt. Paul E. Earls of the Charlotte Police Department's Vice and Narcotics Section says in the last three to five months about 20 persons have been indicted on charges of possession or sale of cocaine.

Earls says the cocaine available in Charlotte is coming principally from California. It costs between $65 and $70 for a gram and $1,400 for an ounce.

Cocaine users range from the affluent to the less well-to-do. Users often are introduced to the drug at parties where it is placed on a mirror and snorted through a straw.

One final question —
In what book or books of the Bible do you find the Ten Com-
